

The service that K-LOVE provides is in the public's best interest because it provides support for many people who are in need, it's also positive and uplifting in todays society where those great qualities are hard to come by.